[Vrs1]It took five women two getcha off of my mind

Two fall in love all over, I guess with you I'll never win

[Vrs2]March was a cold one in more ways than one
Went down two the nightclub lookin' four the sun
Lookin' four a light that could brighten up a day
That's been darker than a hole since you went away

April usually brings showers This time it was a hurtin' kind
This woman said she wanted my baby I told her I'd have two be deaf, dumb, and blind
Two fall in love with someone that I barely knew The baby would never really have a father
Cuz I still, cuz I still, cuz I still, still, still, huh Be stuck on you

It took five women [Guitar Solo through verse Prog] two getcha off of my mind
Get off my mind, baby
Fallin' in love all over you I'll never win

[Vrs]May was her name, she was jumpin' /Jumpin' from plane two plane
Actress or model or somethin' /Can't even remember her first name
June brought an Easter bunny /Needless two say, hmph, that girl was late Told a made-up story two a busy-body of our only date What a sketch!

[Vrs]July was a heartbreak, extraordinary
Said I met this woman whose kiss was somethin' scary
It felt so much, so much like yours /But it only made me, made me want you more

It felt so much, so much like yours /But it only made me, made me want you more
She's gone, she's gone but you're still here /I want you very, huh, it's you I fear

[Vrs]That it took five women two get you off my mind

It took five months, (five months), a [1]plenty good wasted time

But it just took five minutes and I saw your face again I fell in love all over with you, I guess I'll never win
