Across the river a good woman cried
All because a foolish man lied.
She gave up everything, everything that money could buy
But the man told so many lies, there's [6-8]another man over there
That woman across the river, sweet woman across the river - she was mine[4-4]

Word got around that he had jilted her
Men came running from near and far
Should've never been so foolish - guess I'll never
But the man that's got her now, he's a lucky so-and-so
That woman across the river, sweet woman across the river - she was mine.

I remember the other day, about a week ago
She said ";I don't even want to talk to you 'cause I don't love you anymore.";
That woman across the river, sweet woman across the river - she was mine.
>>SOLOS in 4-4

Across the river a good woman cried
All because a foolish man lied
She gave up everything, tried to keep him satisfied
But the man told so many lies, there's [6-8]another man over there
That woman across the river,
That woman across the river,
That woman across the river, sweet woman across the river - she was mine.
